A MENDOCINO BOY.

The American Athletes Give Points to Their Southern Cousins.

J. D. Ginochio, of the railway mail service, received during the week the following letter from his brother, who is now an apprentice aboard the battleship Iowa. The letter is dated at Montevideo, Uruguay:

DEAR BROTHER: I will now answer your letter of March 17th, which I received April 30th. I hope that you will pardon me for not answering sooner as I have been under training for several weeks so I will be in good condition for the coming contest between the U. S. F. S. Iowa and the U. S. cruiser Atlanta for the Atlanta cup.

Several years ago the officers and men of the Atlanta took up a collection of $250 and bought a silver cup with the cruiser's picture engraved upon it, and offers it to any ship on this station who could defeat in athletic sport, such as the 100-yard dash, 120-yard hurdle, putting the shot, throwing the hammer, 5-mile bicycle race, tug of war, etc. We are going to try and take the cup away from them on Saturday next, the 17th of May. I am entered in the 100-yard dash and I think I have a good show of winning for I made it in 10 3-5 seconds April 19th with only two days' training.

On April 19th we were invited to take part in the annual tournament of the Amateur Athletic association of Uruguay. Of the twenty-six events we were entered in thirteen and captured twelve prizes—one gold and three silver medals. I came in first in the 100-yard dash and won a cut-glass inkwell, mounted with solid silver and a silver metal. Both are valued about $10 a piece. I received the medal for lowering the record of Uruguay one fifth of a second. I would have received a gold one if I had lowered it two-fifths, but I think I did pretty good with only two days' training.

On March 15th I stood an examination for advancement and was rated first-class apprentice, which raised my pay from $15 to $21 per month.

Your loving brother, HARRY.

Polite Vaudeville.

The entertainment to be given at Smith's opera house next Tuesday evening, July 15, for the benefit of the Symphony orchestra, will be one of the best entertainments ever given in Ukiah. It will be given by local talent under the direction of C. R. Merrill and wife (whose stage name is Frankie Earle) and will consist of farces, songs, music, sketches, cake walks, etc. Frankie Earle in her new and up-to-date illustrated songs is something new and novel, as also is her butterfly dance in which she uses 200 yards of China silk in her dress on which the electric effect is most pleasing. The papers, speaking of Miss Earle, say that she is the most graceful dancer that has ever appeared in their towns. Mr. Merrill has one of the best picture machines ever brought to the Pacific coast and will show all the pictures on the assassination of President McKinley and Sheridan's Ride. These are the most novel features as also are the vaudville features by the local talent that only need the name to make them professional acts. Don't miss it. Tickets 25 and 35 cents, on sale at Wilson & York's.

THE FOURTH CELEBRATED

Willits Leads the Procession In the County.

Mendocino and Greenwood Give an Excellent Exhibition—Fort Bragg and Potter Valley Show Up Finely.

With the exception of Ukiah every town in the county exhibited its patriotism on the natal day. Below will be found a brief description of the various events:

WILLITS, July 9.—The Fourth of July celebration in Willits was a grand success from start to finish and each event passed off with mechanical precision. The weather prophets had been busy guessing, and in fact the prospects for a good day were slim; but despite all adverse predictions the morning of the Fourth dawned clear and beautiful and a finer day could not have been wished for.

The town was crowded with hundreds of visitors from all points of the compass, and a more orderly lot of pleasure seekers is seldom to be found. The decorative committee, especially the ladies, did good work and the town was in holikay attire from one end to the other. Some of the decorations were especially attractive and displayed good taste and hard work. The Ukiah Mercantile company's store, Jake Newcomer's and M. Reil's were spoken of as among the most artistic.

At 10:30 the parade under grand marshal, Colonel E. A. Middleton, moved up Main street. It was a very spectacular affair and excellently arranged. The line of march was down Main to Valley street, then countermarched to Commercial and down Commercial to the picnic grounds in Foster grove. The parade was formed in two divisions, the first as follows: Grand marshal, Colonel E. A. Middleton, colonel United States infantry; chief of staff, Lieutenant M. A. Stratton; aids of grand marshal, Charles Whited, W. F. Stingley, G. W. Upp, Robert Cook, Andy Cook and Dr. G. A. Woelffel.

First division: Marshal, Dr. C. W. Chalfant; Ukiah band; signal corps, second brigade, N. G. C., commanded by Captain E. A. Selfridge; goddess of liberty, Mrs. C. W. Chalfant; Halo-Cha-Pu tribe, I. O. R. M., sachem, G. A. Woelffel; carriage containing president of the day, H. B. Muir; orator, Senator Frank McGowan of San Francisco; chairman of the reception committee, E. F. DeCamp; Little Lake school float, Miss M. Blevins.

Second division: Marshal, Chester Ware; California Northwestern band; California, Miss Leta Smart; Willits school float, Miss M. Woelffel; Willits baseball nine; Northwestern Redwood company's float, W. A. McGrill; citizens in carriages and on foot.

Captain Selfridge's company in Khaki uniforms presented a very pretty appearance and the boys showed constant drilling and good discipline.

The triumphal chariot of the goddess, fashioned as of beaten brass, drawn by three white horses abreast, as in the Roman chariots of old, brought up a mental vision of the grand race in Ben Hurr, and was all a worthy setting for the dignity and beautifully apparelled representation of the genius of our commonwealth, so well taken by Mrs. C. W. Chalfant. The guards of honor for the goddess were Messrs Gould, Young, Gurley, Sloat and Shimmin.

Halo-Cha-Pu tribe, I. O. R. M., had a very appropriate float, covered with a minature forest, and a wigwam in the foreground. Numerous highly painted braves were lounging about smoking pipes of peace. Their display was a credit to the order.

Miss Blevins, the teacher of the Little Lake school, had a very artistic float, representing the ship of state. Several of her pupils were appropriately dressed and manned the float.

Anxious thoughts sometimes perplex the wife who sees maternity before her. If she is treading an untried path, she sometimes frets herself into a nervous condition which is injurious and prostrating. If motherhood has already been a painful experience she is apt to shrink from the coming trial and by her very mental anxiety increase the possibility of her suffering.

There is no cause for anxiety for those prospective mothers who use Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It tranquilizes the nerves, encourages the appetite, induces refreshing sleep and produces mental cheerfulness as well as physical vigor. It gives strength and muscular elasticity so that the baby's advent is practically painless. It is the best tonic for nursing mothers.

"I am so thankful for what Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has done for me," writes Mrs. John T. Smith, of Slocan, Brit. Col., Box 50. "It helped me through the long months before baby came and I have a big, strong baby girl, the most healthy of the three, and it cured me of a disease which was taking away all my strength."

The dealer who offers a substitute for "Favorite Prescription" does so to gain the little more profit paid on the sale of less meritorious medicines. His profit is your loss, therefore accept no substitute.

CHEER MR. ROOSEVELT

HALF MILLION PATRIOTS LISTENS TO PRESIDENT.

Roosevelt Delivers an Oraton Marked by Fervid Patriotism, and is Cheered to the Echo.—How the National Holiday Was Generally Celebrated.

Pittsburg, July 5.—Half a million persons greeted President Roosevelt in Pittsburg yesterday. Many came from the industrial towns within one hundred miles of the city. It was the city as president and his welcome was most enthusiastic. From the Union Square to the speakers' stand in Schenley park, nearly four miles away, it was one continuous cheer.

The weather was all that could be desired, with the sun shining brightly and not too hot.

Flags and bunting fluttered everywhere along the course of the parade. People crowded the windows of the tall buildings, yelling themselves hoarse in greeting the nation's chief executive. The greatest ovation came as the line passed up Fifth avenue to the top of Grant hill. High buildings on either side of the street offered fine vantage points for spectators. When the head of the military escort reached a position opposite the speakers' stand, it was halted and stood in company front with arms at present. As the President and those in carriages passed in review the band struck up the stirring strains of "Hail to the Chief." The music was fairly drowned by the cheering of the 200,000 persons in the stand on the amphitheater-like hillside which rose in front.

The Declaration of Independence was read by Brigadier-General William J. Hulings and then followed the oration of the day by Theodore Roosevelt, the President of the United States.

The President said in part:

"Mr. Mayor and you, my fellow citizens, my fellow Americans, men and women of Western Pennsylvania: You have just listened to the reading of the great document which signals our entry into the field of nations 126 years ago. That entry was but the promise which had to be made good by the performance of those men and their children and their children's children.

"Words are good if they are backed up by deeds, and only so. The declaration continues to be read with pride by us year after year and stands as a symbol of hope for the peoples of all the world, because its promise was made good, because its words were supplemented by deeds, because after the men who signed it and upheld it had done theirs, the men who came after them, generation by generation, did their work in turn. The Declaration of Independence had to be supplemented in the first place by that great instrument of constructive and administrative statesmanship — the constitution under which we now live. The document promulgated in 1773, under which Washington became our first President, supplemented, necessarily supplemented, the declaration of 1776. We showed in the revolution that we had a right to be free; we showed that we constructed the more perfect union of the old confederacy, that we knew how to use that right as it needed to be used. And then seventy years and more passed, and then again came upon the nation the days of iron need. There came again the days that demanded all that was best, life itself, of the bravest and truest of the nation's sons. And when Sumpter's guns awakened our people America, until then the incarnate genius of peace, sprang to her feet with sword and with shield, a helmited queen among nations. When the thunder of guns called the nation's children, they sprang forward to do the mighty deeds which if left undone would have meant that the words to which we have listened today would have rung as meaningless platitudes.

Those were the two great epochs in the nation's history, the epoch of the founding of the union and the preservation, the epoch of Washington and the epoch of Abraham Lincoln. Those two generations had the greatest tasks and woe to the generation which regards the deeds of the mighty men of the past as an excuse for its failing to do in its turn work that it finds ready to hand.

"We said Cuba should become a free republic and we have kept our word. To have turned Cuba over to the hands of its own people immediately after the withdrawal of the Spanish flag would have meant ruin and chaos. We established a government in the islands and we brought peace and order.

"But there is one thing—our policy toward Cuba has not yet met with its entire fruition. It will meet with it. The course of the last few years has made it more evident than ever before that this nation must intime to come have pecuniary interests on the isthmus connecting the two Americas and in the waters and among the islands adjacent thereto. I regret that a measure of reciprocity with Cuba is not already embodied in statute or in treaty, but it will be just as sure as fate. And now a word as to the Philippines. There are yet troubles in the Moro country, the country of the Mohammedan tribes, but in the Philippines, among the Filipinos, among the people who have been in insurrection, peace now reigns.

"No body of our citizens deserves franker and more generous recognition at the hands of the country than the officers and enlisted men who wear the United States uniform. For there is no body of our citizens which gives more disinterested services with less thought of material reward proportionately in any way to them.

"Oh, my fellow countrymen, as we face the infinitely difficult problems let us keep in mind that though we need the highest qualities of the intellect in order to work out practical schemes for their solution, yet we need a thousand times more what counts for many, many, many times as much as intellect—we need character. Character, that compound of honesty and courage, and common sense, will avail us more in the long run than in any brilliancy on the stump or any advising executive as to means and methods. The brilliancy is good. We need the intellect, the best intellect we can get; we need the best intelligence; we need more still—character. We need common sense, common honesty and resolute courage."

Over-Work Weakens Your Kidneys.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

All the blood in your body passes through your kidneys once every three minutes.

The kidneys are your blood purifiers, they filter out the waste or impurities in the blood.

If they are sick or out of order, they fail to do their work.

Pains, aches and rheumatism come from excess of uric acid in the blood, due to neglected kidney trouble.

Kidney trouble causes quick or unsteady heart beats, and makes one feel as though they had heart trouble, because the heart is over-working in pumping thick, kidney-poisoned blood through veins and arteries.

It used to be considered that only urinary troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all constitutional diseases have their beginning in kidney trouble.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.

Board adjourned to meet July 21, 1902 at 2 oclock p. m.

Ed R. Wright, the fruit tree man, has decided to retain the agency of the Oregon Nursery company for another year. Mr. Wright disposed of many thousands of trees throughout the county the past season. This nursery guarantees all stock handled by their agents to be free from disease and true to name. Orchardists should remember this fact that the cheapest.

Arches for Pilgrims.

It is estimated that somewhere near 150,000 Knights of Pythias and their friends are going to make the pilgrimage west to San Francisco in August next. For this event all the overland railroads have made especially low rates. The Californians are offering every hospitality. A feature of the reception will be big arches that will span the chief streets of San Francisco. They are to be models of architectural genius. The material is to be entirely of California production and composed of the choicest and rarest woods and minerals in the state. The main arch will be seventy feet in width and fifty-eight feet in height. The exterior is to resemble ivory, trimmed with 34,000 feet of garlands for each arch, 100 wreaths of light, 7000 incandescents, 200 arc lights, 100 double banners, 200 colonnades, flags, pennants and emblems.

Hop Growers' Resolutions.

At the hopgrowers' meeting held in this city Saturday last, T. J. Fine presiding, the following was, on motion, duly seconded and adopted:

Resolved, That it is the sense of the hopgrowers of Ukiah valley that the board of supervisors should permit no saloon license to be issued to any parties outside the corporate limits of Ukiah, as the sale of liquor interferes with the labor of the valley and is both dangerous and demoralizing to the Indian.

On motion meeting adjourned sine die. W. D. WHITE.

Fire at Calpella.

Finne & Torgison's store in Calpella was destroyed by fire Wednesday night. The loss is estimated at about $4000, and the place was insured for $2300. It was, as usual, a case of a defective flue.

Locals.

E. and W. L. Dooley were visitors from Hopland Monday.

W. A. Dale from Covelo and R. C. Greenough of Littleriver were in town Tuesday.

Prof. A. F. Calhoun has closed his music store in this city for the summer months,

Mrs. J. L. Johnson and daughter, Alice, are visiting relatives and friends in Mendocino City.

It is probable that the local superior court will declare a vacation from the 16th inst until September 1.

Jake Newcomer was a Willits visitor to this city during the week. Mr. Newcomer is doing a rushing business in that city.

Only a Man.

Bishop Talbot of central Pennsylvania was once missionary bishop in the far west, where such an ecclesiastical dignitary was regarded with the uncertainty due to awe and ignorance. The bishop tells of his arrival one day at the railway station of a town where he was to hold services and where there had never been a bishop. He found the platform crowded with curious country folk. As he stepped from his car the local clergyman came forward and, shaking hands, said, "Bishop, I'm glad to see you." Whereupon a small boy in the crowd exclaimed in tones of keen disappointment: "Pooh! It's only a man!"

"POOH! IT'S ONLY A MAN!"

Lucky Mistakes.

At the close of the civil war General Shafter was an applicant for a first lieutenancy in the reorganized army and had working in his behalf a congressman whose knowledge of army affairs was very limited. One day this congressman sent him the following message: "Dear Shafter—I have just returned from a visit to the secretary of war. I find that it will be impossible to have you appointed a first lieutenant, as that rank is now full. However, the secretary is willing to appoint you a lieutenant colonel, which is the next best thing. Will that do?" A similar story is told of an applicant for a clerkship who wrote to his congressman in such a bad scrawl that the request was supposed to be for a colonelcy. The congressman replied that there was no colonelcies vacant, but that he could secure a majority, which he did, and his constituent was speedily transformed into a soldier of valor and experience.

Parties having lands that they wish to dispose of are asked to write, giving location, description and price. W. J. GUNN,

THE TOUCH DOES IT

Benson's Plasters are like your other friends—they hate to see you in pain or in weakness and are dog-tired hearing you complain about it. They want to cure you and send you along to your business—whole and happy. They can do it and will do it. Try them on. What for? Why for any cough or cold you may be troubled with, or any bothering pain or ache, or worry with kidneys or liver. Possibly some old clutch of muscular rheumatism renders an arm or a leg worth only half price just now. For anything that makes the machine work slow and stiff, with pain maybe in the motion of it, clap a Benson's Porous Plaster squarely on the bad spot. They are the get-out-to-morrow plasters—not the sort that go to sleep on your skin like a cat on a cushion. There is comfort and speedy relief in the touch of them. No other external remedy, no matter how made or how called, is worthy to live in the same street with Benson's Plasters. Pains and ailments melt away under them as a sheet of ice does under the Spring sun. You cannot foretell the weather but you can always foretell the effect of Benson's Plasters; it is as sure as the effect of a hot breakfast in a hungry man's stomach. But look out for substitutes. Get the genuine. All druggists, or we will prepay postage on any number ordered in the United States on receipt of 25c. each.

VENEZUELA CITY INVESTED.

Three Thousand Government Troops Routed by the Insurgents.

Willemstad, Island of Curacao, July 8.—Three thousand Venezuelan government troops under General Calixto Castro, the president's brother, were completely routed July 3, between Barcelona and Agua, by troops of the revolutionary army under the command of General Rolando. The government forces lost all their ammunition and equipment, and many of the soldiers deserted to the revolutionists during the engagement.

After the battle the revolutionary army moved on Barcelona and surrounded that city. The inhabitants were panic-stricken, the shops were closed and the streets were barricaded. President Castro of Venezuela left Caracas Sunday, not for Valencia, as had previously been announced, but for La Guayra, taking with him his private guard of 500 veteran soldiers and General Ferrera's chief of staff. The president reached La Guayra at 5 o'clock on the steamer Ossun, his destination being Barcelona, about 150 miles east of La Guayra.

BUCKET SHOPS LOSE.

Cannot Use Chicago Board of Trade's Quotations.

Kansas City, July 8.—Judge Hook in the district court, in handing down a decision in the suit brought by the Chicago Board of Trade against the Christie Grain and Stock company of Kansas City, to prevent the use of the Chicago board's quotations, held against the bucket shop on almost every point.

An appeal to the United States supreme court will be taken, as in its suit filed a year ago the Chicago Board of Trade claimed a proprietary right in its quotations, and under the new bucket shop law sought to compel grain speculators in different states to pay for the use of them. The Christie company fought the case on the ground that the Chicago Board of Trade itself was a bucket shop without standing, and further, that its quotations were public property. The suit was in the form of an application by the board of trade for a temporary injunction.

An Object Lesson.

"What is the shape of the earth?"
"Round, sir."
"Like what?"
"You, sir."

PLENTY OF TIME.

A Story of the Mississippi River Round About St. Louis.

"St. Louis is the great city of the Mississippi. As Chicago is to the lakes and New York is to the Atlantic seaboard so is St. Louis to the Mississippi. At the commercial dividing of the upper and lower streams it stands, almost at the division of summer and winter in the valley, and all things along the river date from it," says John Swain in Ainslee's. "Part of the lower river looks to New Orleans, especially for a social capital. From the Crescent City go great strings of vessels up the Red and the Ouachita. From St. Louis goes the commerce of the valley, and to St. Louis flows the stream of wealth that commerce begets. Chicago has passed and outstripped its former rival, and the eastern and western streams of commerce pass far north of it. But the traffic of the south remains with St Louis, which understands it and takes toll on all that passes up and down the valley of the river. For 1,500 miles the St. Louis drummer is alone in his glory.

"On the upper stream, where the railway runs beside the river, there is much northern hurry and bustle. But St. Louis is conducted on the plan of a Mississippi river steamer—plenty of time for all. Below there I have seen a St. Louis drummer, minus grip and cases, hail a steamer at a way landing, and when the vessel had been brought to bank the captain has graciously kept her waiting while the drummer hunted up a wagon to send after his baggage. As no wagon was to be found, the steamer's captain obligingly turned her around and took her back up stream a mile, where the drummer's trunks and grip were on the levee at the end of a logging railway.

"'Time,' said the captain when the drummer thanked him. 'If we had as much of everything as we got o' time, we'd all be rich down here.'

"That spirit of time and kindness prevails in all the relations between St. Louis and the south and is a strong bond between the city and its market. It is a proud, handsome city, and its future greatness is only to be limited by the development of the Mississippi."

Strange Freaks of a Tornado.

Winthrop, Minn., July 7.—A freakish performance by a tornado strangely failed to cause any fatalities, though fully a score of buildings were razed, half a dozen residences in the center of the town were lifted from thir foundations and carried a distance varying from ten to a hundred yards. None of the occupants, however, were seriously injured.

On Toast.

The eminent physician had just completed his examination of the man and was firmly of the opinion that his confinement in the insane asylum was an injustice.

"Yes, sir," he said, "I believe that you are just as sane as I am, sir."

"Thank you, doctor," replied the unfortunate, who had been conducting a sane and brilliant conversation. "And now could I ask a favor of you, one very necessary to my convenience?"

"Certainly you can."

"Please have an attendant bring me a piece of toast. I am very tired and want to sit down."

"Why, what in the world has a piece of toast got to do with your sitting down?"

"A whole lot," indignantly replied the man. "Don't you know that I am a poached egg?"
